2016 TEMPERANCE HILL VINEYARD PINOT NOIR

Perched at very high elevation above Bethel Heights, overlooking the mouth of the Van Duzer Corridor, Temperance Hill is truly on the fringe of grape growing boundaries. It's high elevation and cool situation produces wines of exception, with outstanding aging potential. Nicknamed "the staircase vineyard", we share its glorious south facing slopes with Bergström and Antica Terra. Planted in 2001 and farmed organically, the cool evening winds promote a long ripening season with slow flavor development and perfect acid balance. The wines carry the perfect complexity one gets with an exceptional site and great vintage conditions.

TASTING NOTES

Lovely deep garnet with black cherry hues and a youthful bluish edge. The first nose showcases cherry fruit, baked blueberries, mixed wild berries and feral notes lifted by lovely aromatic herbs: wild thyme, mint & rosemary. The smooth and soft entry traveling all in length reveals a youthful yet refined and soft texture, and a long finish that dances between blueberries and blackberries with lingering iron rich earthy notes. An age worthy and compelling wine, a bit of a wild card from this cult site.
