TASTING NOTES

Deep and beautiful Bing cherry color, with a softer edge, the initial aromas of bright cherries, passionfruit and floral notes of lavender open to sweet cherries, nutmeg and mace surrounding the flinty notes. The initial palate impression is bright and nervous, with a youthful mid-palate that displays freshly baked cherry pie with cinnamon and a firm mineral core that tightens through the finish with finely textured and coating tannins. Overall, a very composed wine fit for a great life in bottle.
